RECAPITULATION.

Know-nothings and republicans voting for Banks	110
Republican know-nothings voting against Banks	8
National know-nothings voting for Fuller	35
Democrats voting for Richardson and Orr	80

Mr. Miller, of Missouri, and Mr. Childs, of New York, absent since the beginning of the session; Mr. Trumbull's seat vacant. A number of times within the last four weeks the number recorded above as having voted for Mr. Banks could have elected him; and if to these are added the republican know-nothings who vote for Mr. Pennington, it would give to the side of the House supporting Mr. Banks a clear majority of the whole number, even with an unusual attendance.

This list has been prepared with great care, and is believed to be accurate. If any gentleman is erroneously classed it will give us pleasure to make the correction. Wash. Union.

PROSPECTUS OF THE.
North Carolina Christian Advocate.

THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, having determined to issue a weekly paper bearing the above name, the subscribers are authorized to issue this prospectus.
It is intended to publish a family newspaper, which, while it shall be religious in tone and sentiment, and maintain the doctrines and usages of the Methodist Church, shall be devoted to all the interests of North Carolina, and furnish intelligence for every class of readers.
In size and appearance the new periodical is to be equal to any of our church papers, while it will surpass them as in adaptedness to the wants of our people. The entire insufficiency of the existing "Advocates" to the necessity of our position, forces us to the publication of our own paper; and we confidently expect the hearty co-operation of the members of our church in all parts of the State and Conference, and hope to make the paper so interesting and instructive as to attract patronage from the public generally.
The "Advocate" will be published at $1 50 a year, and the first number will be issued as early as practicable after the next session of our Conference. It is believed that the publication will be commenced on the 1st of January, 1856. It is desirable that as large a subscription as possible be obtained before the Conference, and the ministers and all others interested in the enterprise are respectfully urged to secure and forward the names and address of subscribers, particular attention being paid to correctness in writing the names of persons, post offices and counties. Those who may have no opportunity of subscribing through the agency of our ministers, may write directly to Rev. Wm. E. Pell, Fayetteville, N. C. The payment will be expected upon the issue of the first number.
The location of the publishing office will be determined at the session of the Conference.

PANAMA IN 1855.—AN ACCOUNT OF THE PANAMA Railroad, of the Cities of Panama and Aspinwall, with Sketches of Life and character on the Isthmus. By Robert Tomes. With Illustrations, 16mo muslin.
The writer of this volume accompained an invited party from New York to assist at the opening of the Panama Railroad. He has given a full and interesting account of that great industrial enterprise from its inception to its completion, with a graphic and instructive description of the romantic country, whose eastern and western shores are connected by the iron bands of the railroad. The sketches of a tropical climate, of the curious natural history of the Isthmus, and its peculiar social customs and habits, which are presented by the author in a style of unflagging animation and gayety, make his work one of the most attractive books of travel ever issued from the American press. The illustrations are from drawings made on the spot.
NOW READY,
SYDNEY SMITH'S LIFE AND LETTERS.
A Memoir of Reverend Sydney Smith By his Daughter, Lady Holland. With a Selection from his Letters, edited by Mrs. Austin. 2 vols. 12mo., muslin.

THE LIFE OF A GREAT ORATOR.
Second Supply Now at Hand.
THE LIFE OF S. S. PRENTISS. Edited by his Brother, 2 vols. 12mo. $2 50.
"Next to Patrick Henry, S. S. Prentiss was the greatest natural orator that has appeared in this country. * * * * Dazling wit, keen sarcasm, apt illustrations, and brilliant figures of speech, poured in profusion from his lips—borne on a torrent of feeling which irresistibly carried away whatever audience he addressed. His habits were convivial; he was a prince of good-fellowship, full of fun and anecdote, and no one ever exceeded him in the grace with which he told a story." Buffalo Com.
"S. S. Prentiss is one of the most brilliant names which adorn our annals. * * *. The work is a valuable contribution to American literature, and its contents most strongly interest every admirer of true genius and genuine eloquence." Troy Times.
"His public career was a brilliant one. As a lawyer he was second to none of his profession in the Southwest, or, if success be the test of merit, in the land." Christian Mirror.

"BORN IN AMERICA."—We do not intend to be personal, because these are troublesome times, and we are one of those persons who can neither fight nor run, and will not, therefore, place ourselves in a "predicament." But we take leave to say, that there are a number of politicians with whom we have been acquainted for the past 30 years, concerning whom we have been unable to observe anything peculiar in the way of wisdom, talent, and so forth, who have all of a sudden risen to very great eminence, simply because of the illustrious qualification of being "born in America." Perhaps that is being pretty smart. "Born in American"—so are Poneys and Poodles; Shanghies even, as well as other fowl; besides an innumerable list of "natives," ourselves among the number. Yes, we were all "born in America."

VOICE OF THE DEMOCRACY.

Democratic Meeting in Cumberland.

Agreeably to notice a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of Cumberland county assembled at the Court House in Fayetteville on the 3d inst.

The meeting was organized by calling Wm. Cade, Esq., to the Chair, and appointing W. Alderman, Secretary.

The object of the meeting having been explained by the Chairman,

On motion, a committee of six was appointed to draft resolutions for the consideration of the meeting. Messrs. Jas. G. Cook, Wm. J. Yates, Arthur Melvin, W. McL. McKay, Ashford Gainey, J. E. Bryan and B. Fuller, constituted said committee.

After the committee had retired, J. G. Shepherd, Esq., was loudly called for, and responded in a speech of considerable length as well as of marked ability. His several allusions to President Pierce, Mr. Dobbin and Gov. Bragg, were greeted with hearty and general applause.

At the conclusion of Mr. Shepherd's remarks, the committee returned and reported through their chairman the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has been recommended that the Democratic party hold a Convention in the City of Raleigh, on the 16th of April next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor of the State, therefore,

Resolved, That we, a portion of the Democratic party of the county of Cumberland, heartily approve of the time, place and object of said Convention, and that we will send forty delegates to represent us in the same.

Resolved, That the delegates appointed by this meeting confer with the other delegates from this Congressional District in said Convention, in order that they may select two delegates to represent this district in the National Convention to assemble in Cincinnati on the 2d of June next.

Resolved, That while we will give our hearty support to any gentleman who may receive the nomination for Governor, yet, the dignified, conservative and patriotic course pursued by Governor Bragg entitles him to our preference; and we do hereby instruct our delegates to urge his nomination upon the Convention.

Resolved, That Franklin Pierce is our first choice for the Presidency, and that his course since his elevation to the distinguished office he so ably and faithfully fills, conclusively shows that he is worthy the confidence and support of every patriot.

Resolved, That Hon. James C. Dobbin is our first choice for Vice-President.

Resolved, That we hereby recommend to the democratic party of Cumberland and Harnett to appoint delegates to a Convention to be held in Fayetteville on Monday, the 12th of May next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the next Legislature; and that the representation in said convention consist of three delegates from each captain's district in the two counties.

C. G. Wright, M. J. McDuffie and B. Fuller, Esqs, then addressed the meeting, after which the Chairman announced the following gentlemen as delegates to the State Convention, viz:

Arthur Melvin, A. Gainey, J. G. Cook, B. Fuller, J. E. Bryan, W. M'L M'Kay, W. J. Yates, Wm. Alderman, D. Murphy, G. S. Rollins, R. D. Melvin, Hon. L. Bethune, Duncan Shaw, J. A. Byrne, J. Kirkpatrick, Jr., J. G. Shepherd, W. W. M'Kenzie, J. H. Cook, Wm. Bow, Wm. H. Holland, T. H. Massey, W. H. Gainey, M. J. M'Duffie, S. R. Holly, G. W. Lawrence, James M'Kethan, Jonathan Wood, S. R. On motion, the Chairman was added to the delegation.

The meeting then adjourned.

Democratic Meeting in Sampson.

According to previous notice, a meeting of the Democratic party was held in Clinton on Saturday the first day of March, and was organized by calling Dr. Thomas Bunting to the chair and appointing Thomas H. Holmes and Richard W. Millard, Secretaries.

The chairman in a very appropriate speech explained the object of the meeting, and, on motion, appointed Curtis Thomson, R. C. Holmes, Wm. S. Devane, George H. Daughtry and Blackman Crumpler, a committee to prepare resolutions for its action.

The committee, through their chairman, W. S. Devane, Esq., made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it is proposed by the Democratic State Committee to hold a convention in the City of Raleigh, on the 16th day of April next, for the purpose of nominating some suitable person as our standard bearer in the ensuing gubernatorial contest, therefore,

Resolved, That we approve of the time and place of holding said convention, and that the chairman of this meeting appoint fifty delegates to represent Sampson county in the same.

Resolved, That our faith in the Democratic cause still remains steadfast, and notwithstanding the attempts of Know-nothingism to invade the dearest rights of the American people, yet we are determined to crush the monster, by upholding and advocating the true principles of Democracy.

Resolved, That we place every confidence in the ability and sound democracy of Gov. Bragg, and the triumph achieved for the democracy of the Old North State two years ago, and the statesmanlike manner in which he has conducted our State government, should endear him to every citizen of North Carolina, and we feel perfectly confident that his high-toned honor, gentlemanly bearing and sound democracy will, in the approaching State election, sweep away the last vestige of Know-nothingism and elevate the democratic party to that position which the most sanguine opponent could not decry.

Resolved, That the election of N. P. Banks as Speaker of the House of Representatives, has in our opinion, strengthened the Northern fanatics in their cunning and demon-like endeavors to undermine the basis of our government, and sever the union of these States, and in such extremities it devolves upon the citizens of the South as true patriots, bearing up the "Ark of Justice," to defend their rights by putting down the secret organization through the influence of which he has been elevated to this responsible station.

Resolved, That we, a portion of the great national democratic party, hold the most unlimited confidence in the pure democracy and thorough nationality of the principles of President Pierce, as set forth and embodied in his recent annual message with boldness and calmness, unprecedented by any similar document on record, gallantly advocating the entire doctrine of the party, under whose administration this republic has grown powerful among the nations of the earth, and with master effort of his mighty genius, has discussed the doctrine of State rights, and planted himself upon the high and constitutional ground that Congress has no right to interfere with the domestic institutions of State governments; and we do hereby recommend him as our first choice for re-election to the Chief Magistracy of the United States.

Resolved, That we place entire confidence in the ability, honest integrity, and sound democracy of Carolina's favorite son, the Hon. James C. Dobbin, under whose guidance and direction our navy has nobly improved; and cheerfully recommend him as our first choice for the Vice-Presidency, feeling confident that with Pierce and Dobbin, victory is sure.

Resolved, That notwithstanding our great desire that President Pierce and Hon. James C. Dobbin should be the nominees of the Democratic national convention, we pledge ourselves to support any person nominated by the same, being convinced that "Democracy now and forever" will be their motto.

Resolved, That we still maintain undiminished, that confidence in our present able representative in Congress, the Hon. Warren Winslow, that we manifested at the ballot box; and do hereby express our approbation of his course in the varied ballots for Speaker in the House of Representatives.

In compliance with the first Resolution, the Chairman announced the following delegates to the State Convention, viz:

Wm. L. Robinson, Wm. S. Devane, Thomas H. Holmes, John S. Parish, P. Murphy, M. J. Faison, G. W. Hobbs, A. Hobbs, jr., W. A. Faison, T. I. Faison, F. B. Millard, G. H. Daughtry, Alex. Benton, Wm. Gregory, Kilby Lassiter, Silas Baggot, Wm. C. Dudley, Isham McLamb, sen., W. Autry, Joel Horn, Joseph Herring, Joseph D. Parker, Blueman H. Crumpler, Chas H. Cogdell, Oliver White, Wright L. Underwood, W. G. Fowler, Haywood Boykin, Richard Herring, John Rackley, I. W. Lane, Dr. E. F. Shaw, John Flowers, H. J. Hobbs, David Smith, sen, Lott Rich, sen, A. A. McKay, Wm. Kirby, jr., R. M. Millard, A. B. Chesnutt, R. C. Holmes, Dr. W. McKay, Wm. Fryer, Henry Moore, Wm. S. Hines, James A. Moore, Wm. C. Draughon, John R. Beaman, Handy Warren, R. P. Matthis, Francis Pugh, Henry Owen, and Murdock White.

On motion, the thanks of the meeting were voted to the chairman and secretaries, and the proceedings ordered to be published in some democratic paper in the district, with the request that others would copy.

Democratic Meeting in Alamance.

A Democratic meeting was held in Alamance, at the residence of Dr. W. C. Tarpley, for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent us in the County Convention, on Thursday the 20th inst.

It was regularly organized, on motion of Benj. Hurdle, by the unanimous election of John Trolinger, Esq., Chairman, and John Faucett and Dr. Tarpley, Secretaries. The object of the meeting being explained by the Chairman, it was, on motion of Dr. D. A. Montgomery,

Resolved, That a committee of six be appointed to draft a series of resolutions for the consideration of the meeting.

Pursuant to which the Chairman appointed the following gentlemen: Dr. P. A. Holt, J. R. Montgomery, W. H. Faucett, Benj. Hurdle, A. Pike, and J. R. Simpson, Esqs.

The committee, after retiring for a short time, reported through their Chairman, Dr. P. A. Holt, the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, A crisis has arrived in the political history of this Union, when it becomes the imperative duty of every citizen to express his opinions openly and fearlessly, and in the free exercise of his political privileges, discharge the high prerogatives guarantied by the federal and state constitutions. Therefore,

Resolved, That we profess the same unyielding devotion to the great constitutional, conservative principles of Democratic policy, under which this government has been so ably and so faithfully administered.

Resolved, That in the Administration of President Pierce, we have witnessed a practical realization of the only true American policy—a policy which by its elevation above the cliques of fanaticism, has promoted our national character abroad, and inspired confidence in all constitution-loving, law-abiding citizens at home; that our President by his constant adherence to the constitution, and the fidelity and statesman-like ability with which he has guided the executive councils of this Union amid the breakers of sectionalism, deserves our highest commendation, and should he be again selected by the Democratic party of this country for re-election to the high position he now occupies, he will receive our zealous support.

Resolved, That the Democratic representatives in the present Congress deserve our thanks for the zeal and inflexible fidelity with which they discharged their trust; though in a minority, they ever presented in the hour of trial an unbroken phalanx against the aggressions of fanaticism; though the result terminated in the election of one inimical to the South, and hostile to Southern institutions, yet we are fully satisfied they did all men could do to prevent this triumph of Northern ultraism over the Constitution in the legislative department of this government.

Resolved, That Gov. Bragg, by the ability with which he has discharged the gubernatorial duties of North Carolina, has more than realized the confidence reposed in him by the Democratic party, and we cordially recommend him as a candidate for re-election to that high position.

Resolved, That we consider the organization of the Know Nothing party, as dangerous in its tendencies, and calculated to prove subversive of the true principles of republican government; that their first political ascendency will be chronicled in the history of this Union, as marking the first triumph of Northern treesoilism in the halls of Congress.

Resolved, That regarding as we do the approaching elections as being probably fraught with more important results than any through which this county has ever passed, we most earnestly recommend every true, conservative patriot in our county to come forward, and in sustaining the principles of the Democratic party, contribute his aid, in maintaining the character and integrity of the Union.

Resolved, That to carry out the intentions of various primary meetings, held in different sections of the county, the Chairman appoint forty delegates to represent us in the Democratic Convention, to be held in the town of Graham on Thursday the 20th inst., for the purpose of selecting suitable candidates to represent us in the next Legislature.

The passage of these resolutions was urged in an appropriate address of some length by Dr. P. A. Holt, when being submitted, they were unanimously adopted.

The following gentlemen were appointed delegates:

T. T. Turner, W. H. Faucett, Dr. P. A. Holt, Benj. Hurdle, Orpheus Hanner, Jonathan Gant, J. R. Montgomery, Jacob May, J. K. Gant, A. Pike, T. R. Simpson, Daniel Anthony, J. P. Albright, Hezekiah May, David Hoffman, Joel Boon, H. D. Kirkpatrick, W. Fruitt, Elbridge Freeland, Joseph A. Long, Joseph Garrison, Baker Grayson, Jos. Freeland, J. A. Faucett, C. Isley, Dan. Rich, Jacob Rich, Jeremiah Holt, (of Davie,) Geo. Albright, J. B. Fonville, Henderson Foster, Nat. Jones, John Joley, sen., Lewis Isley, Green Andrews, J. C. Whitsiff, Wm. Trolinger, T. G. Brown, Thos. Fruitt, and D. Brown.

On motion of Dr. D. A. Montgomery, the names of the Chairman and Secretaries were added to the list of delegates.

On motion, it was,

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be forwarded to the N. C. Standard and Hillsborough Recorder, with a request for publication.

After returning thanks to the Chairman and Secretaries for the efficient manner in which they discharged their duties the meeting adjourned.

THE VERMONT DEMOCRACY.—One of the most gratifying features connected with the Democrtic party is the universality of its principles. A Democrat in Maine advocates the same doctrine as a Democrat in South Carolina. By the way, it is this touchstone which affords the true test of the nationality of a party and its sincere devotion to principle. We have this peculiarity of democracy most strikingly illustrated in the proceedings of a democratic convention in Vermont, which are now before us, held to appoint delegates to the Cincinnati Convention. In all these proceedings and speeches, published at full length, there is not one word or line that can be found which would offend the most sensitive Southern son. They breathe a spirit of loyal devotion to the constitution and its compromises and guarantees, which would seem rather to savor of a milder region than the borean latitude of Vermont. One of the speakers, Hon. Mr. Ingersoll, of Connecticut, in the course of his remarks, declared that he had voted for the Nebraska bill, and gloried in the vote. The annoucement was received with rapturous applause by the convention, and three cheers were given for the bill and the constitution.

Such is Democracy—homogeneous—politically, bone of a bone and flesh—standing on the broad principles of equality of rights—the constitution and the union of the States.

"DOESTICK" ON "HIAWATHA."—We see announced in the New York papers, as to be issued early in this month, "Plu-ri-bus-tah," or "A Song that's by no Author—an impertinent imitation of the Song of Hiawatha, by Q. K. Philander Doesticks, P. B. 12mo., with 140 illustrations by McDenan." There will be fun in this, beyond peradventure.

Anniversary of the "Tarborough Guards."

This gallant corps, commanded by Capt. J. Q. DeCarteret, celebrated their first anniversary last Saturday; and in consequence of the short time since this Company's return from Norfolk, they did not have time to prepare such a banquet as would enable them to extend invitations to guests.

The Company, after parading through all our principal streets, and performing many complicated and beautiful evolutions, (some of which were never accomplished before in our City,) returned to their quarters and were dismissed.

In the evening they re assembled at the spacious hall over Mr. Ironmonger's, where a rich and bountiful repast had been prepared for them by their efficient and energetic Quartermaster, Jos. Woltering, Esq. After the Company had done ample justice to the sparkling wine and the many good things before them, Capt. J. Q. DeCarteret, the Chairman, announced the following regular toasts, which were appropriately honored:

1. Our Anniversary: May its future recurrence find us as united and happy as at present.

2. The Governor of North Carolina.

3. The Press of North Carolina: Free and untrammelled, on it depends the prosperity of our beloved State.

4. Our Common School System: May its bright dawn foretell its future brilliancy.

5. The Oak City Guards: Our brethren in arms, when danger shall threaten, we will find them brave as they are open-hearted.

For the Standard.

Editors N. C. Standard:

GENTLEMEN: Whilst our people, in the spirit of fairness, are canvassing the claims and prospects of different prominent men for the succession to the Presidency, I clip and send for the eye of your readers the language of the N. Y. Times in reference to Mr. Buchanan and his chances:

"The friends of Mr. BUCHANAN are very sanguine, and apparently with reason. They have elected the Delegates at large in the State of Maine by an overwhelming majority in the caucus of the Democratic members of the Legislature of that State; and in nearly or quite all the Districts which up to this time have chosen, they have achieved similar success. There is no reason to suppose the result will be different in the remaining Districts, and we may therefore set the State down as a unit in Convention for Mr. BUCHANAN.

HOW THE STATES STAND.

In New-Jersey the Democratice Party is hostile to PIERCE and unanimously in favor of BUCHANAN. In New-York; both wings of the Democratic Party look to him as one of the few men upon whom they can possibly unite. A majority of the delegates from Ohio are said to be for him; and he has more or less friends in the Massachusetts deleggation. Pennsylvania, of course, is in favor of "Old Buck." The demonstrations in his behalf made by the Democracy of that State have been enthusiastic and decided in their character, and there is no reasonable doubt that his name will be presented by the State Convention of the 4th of March with great enthusiasm. His friends there are of the earnest sort, seem determined on his success, and claim that he will carry the State by a larger majority than it has given in many years for the Democratic Party.

HIS STRENGTH IN THE SOUTH.

To Mr. BUCHANAN's great strength in the South it is scarcely necessary to refer. His friends, however, have studiously avoided making war upon any other Democratic candidate, and such will doubtless continue to be their judicious policy. In 1852 the entire South voted for him for several days; and his present strength in the North can scarcely render him less acceptable now than then."

The few facts stated are well calculated to attract the attention of the North Carolina Democracy. Mr. Buchanan was their choice in 1852 with remarkable unanimity. Though others, in the mean time, may have gained on their confidence, certainly no act of his since that time has had any tendency to lessen their confidence in him or their desire to do honor to—probably the most accomplished statesman of the party at the present day. It is well known that his popularity South is more thorough and deeply settled than that of President Pierce himself, and he is by all odds the most available national man north of Mason and Dixon's line. But I only send the extract, and at present don't wish to add any thing to it.

Notice to our Subscribers.

The Standard will not be sent to any one hereafter unless the order for the same be accompanied with the cash; and on the 1st day of May, 1856, the cash rule will be established with reference to all subscribers; and all who may be in arrears at that time will be erased from the list. Subscribers will be duly informed of the amounts of their indebtedness respectively; and we shall adopt some plan by which they will be thereafter regularly notified of the dates at which their subscriptions will expire.

WILL MR. FILLMORE ACCEPT?

Mr. Fillmore, at the latest dates, was in Rome, Italy; and had been presented to the Pope. Some time must elapse before he is informed of his nomination. Will he accept it? There are several cogent reasons, which will doubtless operate on his judgment and disincline him to accept. In the first place, he has already enjoyed for three years the honors of President. He possesses a place in history; and he may apprehend a loss of reputation, as in Mr. Van Buren's case, by entering upon a contest for another term. In the second place, he must be aware of the fact that the Know Nothing cause, never able at any time to carry the country, has lost strength materially of late; and that his connection with this cause, as a sworn third degree member, will have a decided tendency to detach from him the support of many old Whigs, who, under other circumstances, would have voted for him and extended to him their cordial confidence. And in the third place, he will be aware of the fact that the Convention which nominated him was by no means harmonious—that it divided, members from both sections leaving it and refusing to return—that it essentially changed its platform of principles, admitting Roman Catholics to a participation in its deliberations, striking out the twelfth section on slavery, and committing itself, as the former Convention had refused to do, to the old federal doctrine of a twenty-one years residence before naturalization; and in addition to all this, he must feel the awkwardness and inconsistency exhibited in coupling with him such a person, with such antecedents, as Maj. Donelson.

Mr. Fillmore is a cautious, clear-headed man. He is not likely to be warped in his judgment by feelings of enthusiasm for any cause. He will look at the whole matter as it is, and decide accordingly.

We know it is the wish of many old Henry Clay Whigs that he would not accept. They feel, as he must perceive, that he cannot be elected; and that, therefore, every vote which may be thrown for him will to that extent weaken the Democratic constitutional candidate, and strengthen the black Republican cause.

Such being our views, briefly given, we shall not go at present into a consideration of Mr. Fillmore's claims to the Presidency. It would be somewhat absurd to oppose a gentleman who was not a candidate for office. His friends—where were they in '52?—are as zealously engaged in his support as if he were really a candidate; but it may turn out—to use one of Mr. Reade's anecdotes, which he applied during his campaign to the Standard—that like the boy who was up the tree, and forgot in his enthusiasm to hold on to the limb, "they may hear something drop."

THE CURRENCY.—The Fayetteville Observer of Monday contains an article of some length, in reply to some remarks of ours on this subject. There are points in this article, and in a former one of the Observer, which we shall notice soon. By the way, the Observer does us injustice in saying that we have done it justice "tardily." We are seeking to establish facts, and to arrive at truth in this discussion; and we could have no motive, as we certainly have no disposition, to deal unjustly with our cotemporary.

We do not perceive that the Observer has met the leading propositions which we have laid down. Our statement of the history of the currency in this State, and the showing made of the evident intention of the Legislature in regard to small bills, cannot be successfully assailed. The Standard has not "worked itself up to a feeling of hostility to the issue of small notes." We occupy the same position we have always occupied on the subject, as our files will show. Our interest as the publisher of a newspaper leads in one direction—our duty in another; and we are merely attempting to perform our duty. Nor have we any "feeling" against the Bank of Fayetteville. On the contrary, there are reasons (not those resulting from accommodations, for we have never had dealings with it,) why we should think favorably of that institution. But we disapprove, on principle, of its small note policy; yet, we repeat, let the question of its right to issue these notes be tested. If it have the power, let it continue to issue them, and then give to the other Banks the same privilege; but if it have not the power, let the issues cease.

☞ A writer in the Greensborough Patriot, over the signature of "Yancy," is attempting to answer our articles on the subject of the currency. This writer, among other things, charges that because "Mr. W. W Holden" is a Director in the North-Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, he is seeking to "destroy" the "reputation" and "cripple the usefulness" of the Greensborough Mutual Life Insurance and Trust Company. Such a charge is unfounded, and worthy only of the source from which it comes. The writer judges us by what he would do himself, if he were situated as we are.—We object to the Greensborough "Life Insurance Company" as a bank; and we say, as we have shown, that that Company is exercising banking privileges in usurpation of powers never intended to be conferred upon it by the Legislature. But as a "Life Insurance Company," and as a "Trust Company," within the meaning of the Legislature which chartered it, and, as we hold, according to the obvious spirit of its charter, we wish it success. We have not assailed, and do not expect to assail it in this capacity. It may be a solvent, reliable, prosperous Insurance Company. We trust it is—we know of nothing to the contrary; but all this is beside the question. The question is, has it the right to manufacture and send out a circulating medium for the people of the State? We deny this right.—As a bank, it is clearly bogus We will take any quantity, for the present, of the Bank of Fayetteville small notes; but we reject the issues of the Greensborough "Life Insurance Company." It is a bank in one sense, by usurpation of powers, flooding the State with its small bills, and totally irresponsible to the Legislature for its conduct.—Let "Yancy," if he can, show the contrary. His insinuations and his abuse pass for nothing. If regarded at all, they are regarded only to excite contempt.

VALUABLE CITY PROPERTY FOR SALE.—Attention is invited to the advertisement in our paper to-day, by Col. Gwynn, offering for sale his beautiful residence and grounds in Raleigh. This property is very desirable. We regret that the State is to lose so worthy and valuable a citizen as Col. Gwynn.

APPALLING ACCIDENT ON THE SEABOARD R'WAY.—A most terrible and heart-rending accident occurred on the Seaboard Railroad on Monday last. We gather the principal facts, as follows, from the Petersburg Express of Wednesday last. They agree substantially with the information we have received of this terrible occurrence:

"The accident occurred at the tressle bridge, about one mile this side of Margarettsville, in the county of Northampton, N. C. Fortunately, the train consisted only of the engine, tender, Express, Baggage, and Mail car, and one passenger coach.—Had there been the usual number of passengers, which frequently number seventy-five or a hundred, the loss of life would have been alarming. The new and powerful locomotive, driven by Mr. Wm. Weymouth, rushed through the frail timbers first, dragging the remainder of the train after it.—The mail car was broken in twain, but the latteer portion fell diretly on top of the former, and the passenger coach was piled up on all the rest. The tresseling at this point is only about eighteen or twenty feet in height.

Capt. Kilkelly, Messenger for the Adams Express Company, Wm. H. Daughtrey, Mail Agent, Octavius Cocke, Assistant Mail Agent, and Charles Carey, newspaper vender, were all together in the mail car, and unfortunately, were doomed to die a most horrible death by being burnt alive.

Capt. George C. Bourdette, the Conductor, Dr. Williamson and lady, formerly of Weldon, Mr. H. Woodis Niemeyer of Portsmouth, and others, were in the passenger coach, and were all seriously injured, though, it is hoped, not fatally.

Mr. Friedland, the baggage master, two train hands, and the fireman, were all who escaped entirely uninjured.

Mr. Friedland states that the mail car took fire first, and so rapidly did the flames progress, that in less than twenty-five minutes, the entire train was reduced to a heap of smouldering ruins. Mr. F. says he distinctly heard and recognized the voice of Mr. Daughtrey, the Mail Agent, also of young Octavius Cocke, who pleaded most piteously to be released from their horrible situations. There was no axe at hand to cut them loose, nor could a bucket be obtained to throw water into the burning car, so he used his hat, and poured in the water until the flames became so intense, he was compelled to desist. He says the cries of the victims were indescribable, and the recollection of them can never be effaced from his memory. He thinks it probable that Capt. Kilkelly and young Charles Carey, were severely stunned, or killed outright, by the terrible plunge of the car, as he heard nothing from either of them.

A negro woman is said to be missing and the presumption is she was entirely consumed.

Mr. Wm. Weymouth, the engineer, had both legs badly crushed, and it is feared amputation will be necessary, even though his life should be saved.

Dr. Williamson and lady, formerly of Weldon, are not fatally injured, though the Dr. has received a frightful wound across the face just under the nose.

Capt. Bourdett, the Conductor, had his head badly bruised, and several ribs were broken.

Mr. W. E. Edwards, of Greensborough, N. C., was severely bruised, and lost two trunks of gold watches and jewelry which were so damaged by the fire as to be utterly valueless.

Miss Rowe, of Norfolk, was en route for Goldsboro, N. C., and received severe injuries internally.

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS.—Mr. Wm. E. Rice, of Nicholas county, Ky., who was a passenger on the unfortunate train, came up on the Petersburg road yesterday and is now stopping in this city. He called at our office last evening, and gave us some additional information. He says the cars were running at the rate of about twenty or twenty-five miles per hour, and he things there were about twenty persons in the passenger coach. The first intimation he had of the accident, was a loud crash, and the next instant he was prostrate on his back, and every other passenger in the coach heaped upon him. As soon as he could extricate himself, he proceeded to release the ladies from the wreck, (there being but three,) and then took young Niemeyer, and conveyed him to a place of safety. He says Mr. N. is very seriously injured. Mr. Rice says Dr. Williamson's face is frightfully cut and bruised. He thinks at least forty-five minutes elapsed before the entire train was consumed.

Young Octavius Cocke was cut from the mail car, and taken out alive, but died in fifteen minutes after he was released. His feet and legs were very badly burned.

W. H. Daughtrey, the mail agent, had one arm burned entirely off up to the elbow, and was dreadfully blackened and scorched in other portions of his body.

Young Charles Cary, the book agent, was also badly burnt, and entirely dead when taken from the car.

Capt. Kilkelly, Messenger for the Adams Express Company, was burnt to a crisp—his heart and some few bones being all that was recovered. These were placed in a coffin, and sent to Goldsborough, N. C., where an affectionate wife and four interesting children survive the ill-fated father.

Miss Rowe had several hundred dollars about her, which was lost, and along with every particle of her cothing, save that she wore, consumed.

Mr. Everett, of Nashville, also lost several hundred dollars in money.

The Adams Express Company had very valuable freight on the train. Several cases of watches and jewelry, and several thousand dollars in newly engraved notes for one of the Wilmington Banks.—These, however, had never been signed, and the loss will be trifling.

THE CAUSE OF THE ACCIDENT.—All attribute the accident to the unsoundness of the tressle bridge, the wood in many portions being much decayed.—Mr. Rice says a gentleman residing in the vicinity of Margarettsville stated, at the scene of the disaster on Monday, that fears relative to the safety of the bridge had been entertained for twelve months past."

The Norfolk papers attribute this loss of life and property to "some unprincipled scoundrels, but for what object it is impossible to divine." The Herald says that on Friday the tressle-work was "thoroughly examined and pronounced to be perfectly safe and in good order, and on Saturday a very heavy freight train of forty cars passed over without damaging the structure."

Mr. Kilkelly was well known in this City, having served his apprenticeship with Mr. Loring in the Standard office. He was an intelligent, kind-hearted man; and his death is deeply deplored. His funeral took place in this City, at the Methodist Episcopal Church, on Wednesday evening last; and his remains were interred in the City cemetery.

GLORIOUS PLATFORM OF PRINCIPLES.—The Resolutions adopted by the late State Democratic Convention of Pennsylvania, present a platform on which all true men in all portions of the Confederacy can safely stand. We regret we have not space to-day to lay them before our readers. The administration of President Pierce is fully and cordially approved; but Pennsylvania unanimously declares her preference for her own illustrious son, James Buchanan, for President.

☞ The "Sentinel," Elizabeth City, refuses to excuse Mr. Craige for pairing off with Mr. Hughston. Very well. Mr. Craige and all his friends feel badly, of course, under the "Sentinel's" strictures. The "Sentinel" is alike stupid and bitter. Its professions about Southern rights are hardly worth the paper on which they are printed. Mr. Craige can very properly treat such a newspaper with contempt.

THE K. N's "FLAXED OUT."—The Democrats have recently carried Chicago, Illinois, Salem, Mass., and a number of towns in New York. The late cold weather seems to have given "Sam" a chill. The "Doctor's means" which were forced down him recently at Philadelphia, have not been of benefit to him.

LATER FROM EUROPE.—The steamship Hermann arrived at New York on Monday last, bringing Liverpool dates to the 6th inst. The intelligence was by the steamer Arabia, which arrived at Halifax on the 12th.

The Peace Conference at Paris had held three meetings. Rumors both favorable and unfavorable abound. The general impression is, however, that negotiations are progressing favorably for peace.

The Mayor of London gave a banquet to Mr. Buchanan, but the latter was summoned to dine with the Queen, and so could not attend.

No tidings of the Pacific. A despatch to Brown, Shipley & Co., agents of the Collins line at Liverpool, dated Glasgow, February 27th, says that the steamer Edinburg, from New York, passed on Feb. 7th, large quantities of broken ice—saw on it broken cabinet furniture, five ornamental doors, with white handles, a ladies work box, and other articles common in first class steamers.

Cotton quiet and unchanged. Breadstuffs considerably declined, and dull. Naval stores quiet.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.—The proceedings of Democratic meetings, in Granville, Pitt, Onslow, Northampton, Franklin and N. Hanover, have been received, and shall appear soon. The spirit with which the Democrats and anti-K. N's of the State are moving, is worthy of all praise. We have had some experience in the politics of the State, and we know something of parties and of public men; and we have no hesitation in saying that we have never known the Democratic party of North-Carolina to be so united, so confident, and so full of the zeal which commands victory against all odds, as it is now. We anticipate a large and enthusiastic State Convention in April. With our great and noble State and national doctrines inscribed on our banner, and with BRAGG for our leader, we shall enter the contest assured of a brilliant and overwhelming triumph.

A GYMNASTIC SENATOR.—The Boston Post, referring to Senator Hale's attack on the President's message, says: "Jack Hale turned a summerset, stood on his head, walked on his hands, and cut up other antics to amuse the Senate, when the message was read to that body, and finally resumed his seat without injuring any one or tearing his clothes."

"Jack" is a third degree Know Nothing, and is as bitter in his opposition to President Pierce as are the members of the Philadelphia Convention.—"Jack" denounces the President for having advised the repeal of the Missouri restriction; and the K. N's, from both the South and the North, in Convention at Philadelphia, did the same thing. See their new platform. "How pleasant it is to see brethren dwelling together in unity."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—The people of New Hampshire voted on Monday last for Governor, members of the Legislature, &c. The candidates for Governor were, Ichabod Godwin, Whig—John S. Wells, Democrat—and Ralph Metcalf, the present incumbent, K. N. Metcalf's plurality last year was 5,727 votes. One hundred and eighty towns have been heard from with the following result: Wells 28,560—Metcalf 29,341—Godwin and scattering 2,-293. The House stands 116 Democrats to 142 opposition. Result doubtful.

THE RING OF THE TIN LANTERN.—The Boston Post—whose Editor is truer to the constitutional rights of the South than those Southern K. N's who submitted at Philadelphia to the striking out of the twefth section—says: "The very first newspaper we saw with the names of Fillmore and Donelson at the head of its columns, was the Charlestown, Mass., "Advertiser." "The latter name," it says, "has the solid ring and memory of Old Hickory." Well, it has, as far as ANDREW JACKSON—but when you come to add the Donelson, the ring is that of a tin lantern—single tin at that—and pricked full of holes, with an opening at the top to let off the smoke of the grease candle inside."

CONTRADICTED.—Gov. Wise contradicts the statement, made by Mr. Stuart in the K. N. nominating Convention, that he, Gov. Wise, had said "the administration of Fillmore was Washington-like throughout." Gov. Wise, in a characteristic letter, says he "never uttered nor thought such a sentiment."—Gov. Wise says there are now three parties in the country, to-wit—"the white man's party, the Democratic; the black man's party, the black Republican; and the mulatto party, the cross of Southern and Northern Know Nothings—the ticket of Messrs. Fillmore and Donelson."

☞ We learn that the proposition of the Wilmington and Weldon Road to the Directors of the N. C. Road, recently in session at Goldsborough, was not what we stated in our last from the Wilmington Journal; but it was to form a ticket with the North-Carolina Road, provided said Road would not form a ticket with any other connecting Road. The Directors were quite willing to have accepted the proposition of the Wilmington Road without the proviso, but were unwilling to be placed under such an invidious restriction.

SOME OF MR. FILLMORE'S RECORD.—We refer those persons who do not know much of Millard Fillmore's antecedents to the following letter writen by him in answer to certain interrogatories:

Letter of Mr. Fillmore to the Erie abolitionists.

BUFFALO, October 17, 1838.

SIR: Your communication of the 15th inst., as chairman of a committee appointed by "the Anti-Slavery Society of the county of Erie," has just come to hand. You solicit my answer to the following interrogatories:

1st. Do you believe that petitions to Congress on the subject of slavery or the slave trade ought to be received, read, and respectfully considered by the representatives of the people?

2d. Are you opposed to the annexation of Texas to this Union, under any circumstances, so long as slaves are held therein?

3d. Are you in favor of Congress exercising all the constitutional power it possesses to abolish the internal slave trade between the States?

4th. Are you in favor of immediate legislation for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia?

I am much engaged, and have no time to enter into an argument, or to explain at length my reasons for my opinion. I shall therefore content myself for the present by answering ALL your interrogatories in the AFFIRMATIVE, and leave for some future occasion a more extended discussion of the subject. * *

I am respectfully, your most obed't serv't,

MILLARD FILLMORE.

W. MILLS, Esq., Chairman.

So, by the above letter it will be seen that the know-nothing candidate was, in 1838, opposed to admitting Texas into the Union with slavery and in favor of abolishing slavery in the District of Columbia. In view of these sentiments, it sounds strange to hear men denying that Mr. Fillmore was ever a free-soiler. The promulgation of just such sentiments as the above, by prominent men, has been one of the main causes in bringing about the present agitated state of affairs. Fay. Car.

DR. HAWKS.—A history of Commodore Perry's discoveries, experiences and doings in Japan, is being prepared by the Rev. Dr. Hawks, of New York. It will be comprised in four volumes, the price being fixed at twenty dollars. They will be profusely illustrated. Dr. Hawks is also busily engeged just now on his history of North Carolina.

☞ We shall conclude the Comptroller's Report in our next issue.

LETTER FROM PINEBUR MOCCASIN.

No. 1.

MOCCASINVILLE, N. C., March 5, 1856.

Mr. Printers of the Standard:

I used occasionally to write letters for Mr. Wilson's Banners when he printed them up here in our region, and supposin' he and the rest of you would like to hear from me agin, I have taken my pen in hand to try to do up sumthin' for the Standard. I am gittin along in years and my hand is a little stif, but my heart and upper lip is stiffer, and my democracy is the stiffest of all; and if I don't write long letters nor many of them, I will try to put what I do say in the right place.

We have jest got the news here that Filmore and another feller has been nominated by the Know-nuthin' Convenshun at Philadelphy. (Drat that name of Know-nuthin'!—they fooled me onct, of which I will tell you byemby—that's what makes me madder at them.) I say "another feller," cause why, we don't know yet what his name is. Bob Mullins, who used to be a Dimicrat, but who is now a big fool of a Know-nuthin', swears it is Andrew Jackson, Jr., a chip of the Old Hickry block. Bob says the Dimicrats are tryin' to annex "Donelson" to it, jest to fool the people and make them b'lieve he is no akin to Old Hickry. He says that Holden & Wilson and a few others are promisin' the furriners that if they will stick up to the Dimicratic party for a while they shall have a king here to rule over them before long, "but," says Bob, "I be —— if they don't have sum fun yit before they git a king." Who would have thought that even Bob Mullins would have been so darned mean?—and he is called the meanest man west of sunrise.

Joe Smithers (Bill's brother) says the name is Andrew Jackson Donelson, but that there is not much of the Donelson about him—he is mostly Andrew Jackson. Joe used to be a Whig, and nobody could cuss Gineral Jackson harder than he could; but now he wants to pin the Dimicratic sperit of that great old man to the little puny, sickly, weak body of Know-nuthin'ism, to hold it up, for it can't stand alone and never will. I tell you what, Mr. Printers, if the old hero could jest git one hand out of the grave, "by the Eternal," he would scratch the eyes out of Donelson (if that be his name) fust, and then he would make the hipercritical countenances from his old revilers and slanderers that are now tryin' to use his name for their own base purposes! I hope that nobody but Joe Smithers is mean enuf to attempt this game. If any body about Rolly is a mind to put himself in the same categery with Joe, jest tell him that I say he is no better than Joe, and that Joe was whipped onct for stealin' terbacker from a nigger.

Ned Davolt, our young lawyer here, who thinks he is mity smart and has no rival in his opinion, says the name is Andrew Jackson Donelson, and that he is a nefew of and blood relashun to the old Gineral. I can't, for the life of me, git the same tale out of two Know-nuthin's, and still every one swears he is right. I b'lieve they have all got in sich a habit of swearin' that they can't help it, no matter what it is they are swearin' to.

I intended to tell you about the infernal imposishun practiced upon me to git me to jine the Know-nuthins; but my hand is gittin' cramped, and I must stop. The fact is, I git mad every time I think about it, and the more I think about it, the madder I git. I don't like cussin' no way, but I'll be darned if I don't b'lieve I'm excusable for cussin' the mean sneaks that lied me into the consarn. But I'll tell you all about it in my next—I can't do it now.

So no more at present, but remain yourn till deth.

PINEBUR MOCCASIN.

P. S. Joe Smithers has jest come in, and he says he has sent on $2 for the Register. Joe is sich a liar I don't know when to b'lieve him. Howsumever, I herewith send you $2 for the Standard, for I want a antidote to any pison that may be brought into this naborhood. Moreover, I want to find out that feller's name if I can, and if he has any of Gineral Jackson's blood in him, I'm gwyne all the way to Tennysee to kill him, jest to keep disgrace off of the old Gineral's name. I tell you I'll do it. Drat the Know-nuthin' consarn—how they did fool me onct! But I'm gittin' mad agin, and so will quit.

P. M.

For the Standard.

The nomination of Fillmore, by the Know Nothings, is well received in this city, by the National Democratic party—not so well by the order, of which, Mr. F. is a third degree member. That Mr. Fillmore is a very good K. N. who can doubt, coming as he does, from the hot bed of every ism known to the civilized world. That he is a marvelous proper subject for a K. N. is not an imaginary fact, but a living reality, as he has fully proven by thrice kneeling, and subscribing to the three horrid oaths concocted by Rayner, Buntlin and Company. That he makes some pretentions to political respectability is none the less gratifying to Democracy, as we would rather contend with a decent man, than a blackguard Reverend, cloaked under the mantle of a fallen gentleman. But, that Fillmore and his renegade companion will be slaughtered at the polls, their own friends do not pretend to doubt. Andrew Jackson Donelson may thank his name for the position which he occupies. He may be vain enough to think that his smartness has been the means of procuring his nomination—he may not have sense enough to know that he is not the veritable Andrew Jackson, the hero of New Orleans. We shouldn't wonder, at all, if a long yarn about the 8th of one January, cotton bales, &c., &c., is hatched up, printed in pamphlet form, with a frontispiece in the shape of a prancing charger, mounted by Gen. Andrew Jackson Donelson, and circulated for the edification, gratification and instruction of the "sons of the sires of '76,"—the anti-christian, anti-Whig, anti-Democratic, Know Nothing, native American partie of the United States. It was expected that the Philadelphia Convention would scatter chaff, to catch the unsuspecting; but this rockle, in the shape of Andrew Jackson Donelson, out Herods Herod himself—is a complete killer—and we shouldn't wonder if the bones of old Hickory turned in their coffin when it was announced that Andrew Jackson Donelson had become the willing tool in the hands of an oath-bound, constitution-violating partie.

HOW THE NOMINATION IS RECEIVED.—The Philadelphia North American says that Mr. Fillmore's nomination in that quarter "falls coldly and unimpassively on the public mind." The New Haven (Connecticut) Register says: "We take it for granted that no important section of the American party in the free States will support the nomination of Fillmore and Donelson made by the Philadelphia convention." A very large number—estimated as high as one-half—of the lodges in New York openly repudiate the nomination of their "favorite son." In New Jersey, but one know-nothing paper has hoisted the names of Fillmore and Donelson.

LECTURES.—We understand that Gov. Swain has complied with the request of the Library Association and has consented to deliver a lecture on the early history of the State, some time during the Spring.

We also learn that the same Association and some of our citizens have united in requesting the Hon. Edward Everett, to extend his visit from Richmond to this place, and deliver his address on the life and services of Washington, to which we have heretofore made allusion. We trust that Mr. Everett may be able to comply. He will find a cordial welcome from all our citizens. Wil. Herald.

Hon. James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania, has received the unanimous recommendation of the Democratic members of the New Jersey Legislature for the next Presidency.

THE MARKETS.

PETERSBURG MARKET.

Grocers and Commission Merchants, No. 129, Sycamore st.

PETERSBURG, March 10, 1856.

TOBACCO—During the past week the market has been very active, owing in part to the continued shortness in the receipts which are very light for the season. Prices yesterday for good lugs and leaf were, we thought, better than they have been any time during the year, while for common lugs we thought there was less activity and prices were a shade lower than they were early in the week. We quote common to fair lugs, $5 to $6; good to very good $6¼ to $6¾; and occasionally a hhd brings from $7 to $7½—the latter being an extreme price: common to middling leaf $7 to $8; fair to good $8¼ to $10¾; fine would bring more. Planters who may have any portion of their crops prized would, we think, do well to send it down, as we hardly expect to see present prices maintained after the receipts get heavier.

WHEAT—During the first and middle of the week there was a better feeling in this article, with more disposition to operate by both buyers and sellers, and the sales were larger than they have been for several weeks past, ranging from $1 60 to $1 70 for red and $1 65 to $1 78 for white. For the past two days the market has been quiet, with sales to a limited extent at about the figures named above.

COTTON—Receipts moderate for the season and the market is quiet. We quote fair to prime lots at 9¼ to 9¾c. Holders generally are not disposed to press sales.

CORN—Since our last the receipts have been very small, and owing to this fact prices are some firmer. We quote at 70 to 72c with limited sales and a fair demand.

GUANO—There has been an increased demand for this article and we quote at $57 to $57½.

BACON—Of Western, the market is yet bare, though supplies are looked for early in the coming week. Owing to the heavy demand at present we count on prices being firm. Va bacon, hog round, 12½.

LARD—Va, in kegs, 12½. No barrels in market.

PROSPECTUS OF
"THE WESTERN SENTINEL,"
A DEMOCRATIC AND FAMILY JOURNAL.

SOLICITED BY MANY CITIZENS OF FORSYTH and surrounding Counties, the undersigned proposes to publish, in the town of Winston, North Carolina, a Weekly Newspaper under the above title.

The increasing public interests of our section, and of Western Carolina generally; the enlarged appreciation of the reading public; and the demand for a local journal at the seat of our County government, seem to favor the establishment at Winston of a journal of the character proposed.

The "SENTINEL" will be devoted to Morality, Pure Literature, Republican Principles, General Intelligence, and all the interests of the people. It will be the aim of the publisher to render it a repository of pleasing and profitable reading, a faithful record of events, and an agreeable companion to the Home Circle.

In matters of public policy, both National and State, it will yield an unwavering support to Democratic measures, and a zealous advocacy of the Democratic cause; sustaining to the height of its ability the principles of the Baltimore Democratic platform of 1852, as agreed upon by the Party, and sanctioned by a large majority of the American People.

Against the recently organized "Know Nothing," or "Native American" movement, the Sentinel will take decided and unequivocal ground; regarding the creation of a religious test as qualification for public office, at variance with the letter and spirit of the Constitution, opposed to every principle of Republicanism, and worthy only the ignorance and intolerance of a darker age. Acting from a firm conviction that honesty, capability, and fidelity to the Constitution, (aside from political principle,) are sufficient requisites in candidates for office under a Republican form of government, we shall oppose any organization, whether secret or open, that seeks to create a barrier between the native and adopted citizen, or to deprive either of the rights and privileges enjoyed under the Constitution and Laws, as they stand. In short, our position and sentiment upon this subject will be: PRINCIPLES—not birth-place; MEASURES—not men.

The paper will be devotedly attached to the Union of the States, while maintaining a jealous guardianship of their individual rights: advocating as the only guarantee of the perpetuity of the Union, a strict and faithful adherence, under all circumstances, to the Federal Constitution.

With the increased mail facilities afforded by the completion of the North Carolina Railroad, and the advantages of a daily arrival, the Sentinel will contain the latest and most reliable intelligence.

Especial care and attention will be bestowed upon the Editorial Department; and with the assistance of intelligent correspondents, it is hoped that the original portion of the publication may form a pleasing and attractive feature.

While the tone of the "Sentinel" upon all subjects, will be fearless and independent, its columns will be entirely free from the low slang and billingsgate rhetoric so conspicuous in some of the political journals of the day.

The first number will be issued in the month of April next.

The "Sentinel" will be printed weekly, from new type, on a large sheet, at the price of Two Dollars per year, in advance; two dollars and a half after six months, or three dollars after the close of the subscription year. To any one procuring ten subscribers, and paying the cash in advance, the paper will be furnished one year, gratis.

F. E. BONER.

December 16, 1855. 9—

Prospectus of the "Southern Sentinel,"

A Democratic and Miscellaneous Journal, to be Published Weekly, at Wilson, N. C.

THE EXISTING CONDITION OF POLITICAL PARTIES, and of partizen strife, natually suggests the establishing of such a journal as the "SOUTHERN SENTINEL" purposes to become. The present, indeed, is a crisis in our political history, never witnessed before. The Constitution has been invaded; the laws trampled and spat upon; religious liberty assailed; ballot boxes broken and burnt; the landmarks of our political ancestry partially effaced; the wisdom derived from a time-honored experience unseated; strange and questionable men have been pushed into high positions; and fanaticism, unchained from its axe and its faggot piles in the North, is heard to howl among us in the South. These evils, so far as its humble abilities shall serve, will endeavor to arrest. It will endeavor to inculcate a reverence for the laws as they exist, and for the Constitution, as it has been interpreted by the wise men of the past and by the Fathers of the Democratic faith. It will defend not only political, but RELIGIOUS liberty, and will do battle against every political heresy that may appear, whether hatched in caves or culverts, or open convention.

The SENTINEL will also, to relieve the monotony of politics, devote space to literary topics, original and selected, as well as to miscellaneous subjects, which shall include Agricultural and the latest Commercial intelligence. In brief, no efforts nor expenses will be spared to make the Sentinel one of the most useful and efficient journals in the South.

The first number of the Sentinel will be issued about the first of the next month, and sent to subscribers at the rate of $2 per annum: $2 50 at the end of six months, and $3 at the end of the year. Discount made in behalf of clubs, who shall take five, ten or more copies.

NOTICE.—A NEGRO MAN WHO CALLS HIMSELF WM. CURTIS, was committed to the jail of this city in December last, for want of a copy of his Registry. He says that he is free, that he was raised, as he believes, in the county of Orange or Granville, in the State of North Carolina, by an old gentleman named Thomas Jordan, (a Scotchman,) whom, he says, gave him his free papers. He left there about twenty years ago for the State of Georgia with Mr. John Tuttle, a Railroad Contractor, and has not resided in N. C. since that time. He is about 41 or 42 years of age, black complexion, five feet 7¾ inches in height, tolerably likely, has small whiskers, and is ruptured. He gives such a lame account of himself that the Hustings Court of this city authorized me to advertise him, thinking it probable that he may be a runaway slave. Any person who may see this notice, and knows any thing about the above named man, will please give me the information.

BAYARD TAYLOR'S NEW BOOK.—A Visit to India, China, Loo-Choo and Japan, in the year 1853, by Bayard Taylor, with elegant Steel Engravings. 12mo cloth. Price $1 50.

This volume is a record of the author's own experience during a year's travel in the above named countries, and is intended to convey an accurate idea of their present physical and social aspect. The results of the writer's observations are given in the same delightfully natural style which characterizes his previous works.

"We welcome with pleasure this long promised work. The last of three volumes comprising the travels in Central Africa, Egypt and India, of one of the most indefatigable travelers of the day. We know of no books of the kind that keep the reader's attention so much alive."—Sunday Dispatch.

"Mr. Taylor has earned a reputation as a traveller, never equaled by any American, and surpassed by but few persons now living. We venture the assertion, that this new book will be generally confessed to be his greatest and best work."—Eastern Argus.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

"A Basket of Chips" is a somewhat unpromising repast to ask any one to participate in, to be sure, and the unsavoriness of the name will, no doubt, be eagerly laid hold of by some of the critics. Perhaps it might be as well, in explanation of the title, to say that the random sketches contained in this volume are but the sawdust and shavings accumulated during intervals of more laborious carpentry.
